ABOUT ME

I'm a Computer Science and Data Science student exploring creative content, brand communication, and visual storytelling. I currently contribute to Seoul Sip's Social Media Management team, where I participate in content ideation, promotional brainstorming, and community engagement. I enjoy turning everyday brand moments into engaging visual experiences, experimenting with creative approaches, and developing my skills through hands-on brand projects.

SELECTED CREATIVE PROJECTS & EXPERIENCE

01 Social Media Management — Seoul Sip Cafe

Active member of Seoul Sip's social media management team. Contributing to creative content brainstorming, planning daily story engagement, and crafting welcoming captions reflecting the cafe's serene aesthetic.

02 "The Cloud Matcha Ritual" Campaign Concept

Conceptualized an educational 3-slide carousel and sensory ASMR pour reel demystifying traditional bamboo matcha whisking to better introduce specialty beverages to first-time customers.

03 Local Awareness & Community Storytelling

Co-formulated narrative campaigns including "Shhh... Bhopal's best-kept secret is out!" and designed interactive story polls to foster genuine two-way community engagement.

04 "Study, Sip & Savor" & Secret Menu Sunday Drops

Formulated targeted promotional concepts positioning the cafe as a tranquil study haven for university students, paired with exclusive weekend secret-menu teaser stories.
